

Department of the Navy, DoD

§ 752.2

loss or destruction of an item in shipment is attributable to a GBL carrier. Unearned freight packets should be addressed to the carrier, and not to the agents of GBL carriers, NTS contractors, or other contract movers. An unearned freight packet is required when a mobile home is lost or completely destroyed. An unearned freight packet includes:

(1) A Request For Deduction of Unearned Freight Charges;

(2) A copy of DD Form 1843;

(3) A copy of DD Form 1844; and

(4) A copy of the GBL.

(b) Dispatch. The unearned freight packet is not dispatched to the NAVMTO, Norfolk until the carrier has paid its agreed liability or when offset has been accomplished.

§ 751.34 GAO appeals.

(a) General. Sections 1 through 12 and 52 through 65 of Title 4, GAO Manual, Policy and Procedures Manual for Guidance of Federal Agencies, and 4 CFR parts 30-32 set forth procedures for carriers to appeal setoff action. Before a carrier can appeal a setoff action to GAO, the command requesting setoff action must make an administrative report to GAO.

(b) Procedures for appeals. (1) The carrier must request appeal from the command requesting setoff action and request a GAO review.

(2) The command requesting setoff action will review the appeal and if it is determined the setoff action was appropriate, will do an administrative report and notify the carrier when this has been accomplished.

(3) The administrative report and complete claims file will be forwarded to the NLSC activity serving the geographic location for review prior to forwarding to GAO.

(4) The complete claims package, including all correspondence with the carrier, will then be forwarded to GAO.

(c) The administrative report and enclosures must support the setoff action.

(d) GAO Manual. All NLSC activities have been provided a copy of a manual published by the Claims Group General Government Division, U.S. General Accounting Office entitled Procedures of the U.S. General Accounting Office for Household Goods Loss and Damage Claims. Other commands dealing with carrier recoveries should get a copy of the manual from the NLSC activity servicing the local area.

§ 751.35 Forms and instructions.

Copies of all of the forms and instructions discussed in this part may be obtained if needed, from the Commanding Officer, Naval Publications and Forms Center, 5801 Tabor Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19120.

PART 752—ADMIRALTY CLAIMS

Sec.

752.1 Scope.

752.2 Organization.

752.3 Claims against the Navy.

752.4 Affirmative claims.

752.5 Salvage.

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 301; 10 U.S.C. 5013, 5148, and 7621-7623; 32 CFR 700.206 and 700-1202.

§ 752.1 Scope.

This part applies to admiralty-tort claims. These include claims against the United States for damage caused by a vessel in the naval service or by other property under the jurisdiction of the Navy, or damage caused by a maritime tort committed by an agent or employee of the Navy, and affirmative claims by the United States for damage caused by a vessel or floating object to Navy property.

[39 FR 9962, Mar. 15, 1974]

§ 752.2 Organization.

(a) Administrative authority of the Secretary of the Navy. The Secretary of the Navy has administrative authority for settlement and direct payment where the amount paid does not exceed $1,000,000 and where the matter is not in litigation, of claims for damage caused by naval vessels or by other property under the jurisdiction of the Navy, or damage caused by a maritime tort committed by an agent or employee of the Navy, and for towage or salvage services rendered to naval vessels (10 U.S.C. 7622 (1982)). The Secretary also has authority to settle affirmative admiralty claims for damage caused by a vessel or floating object to property under the jurisdiction of the Navy (10 U.S.C. 7623 (1982)).

(b) Admiralty Division of the Office of the Judge Advocate General. The Navy's admiralty-tort claims are processed and adjudicated in the Admiralty Division of the Office of the Judge Advocate General. All correspondence with the Admiralty Division should be addressed to the Office of the Judge Advocate General (Code 31), Navy Department, 200 Stovall Street, Alexandria, VA 22332-2400.

(c) Mission and policy. The primary mission of the Admiralty Division is to effect prompt and equitable settlements of admiralty claims, both against and in favor of the United States. The settlement procedure has evolved to eliminate the expenses and delays arising out of litigation and to obtain results advantageous to the financial interests of the United States. Where settlements cannot be made, litigation ensues in the Federal Courts. The final test of whether a settlement is justified is the probable result of litigation. Settlements are therefore considered and determined by the probable results of litigation. The policy of the Navy is to effect fair and prompt settlements of admiralty claims wherever legal liability exists.

(d) Admiralty-tort claims. As indicated above, the Admiralty Division primarily handles admiralty-tort claims. These are claims for damage caused by vessels in the naval service or by other property under the jurisdiction of the Navy, or damage caused by a maritime tort committed by an agent or employee of the Navy, and claims for damage caused by a privately owned vessel to a vessel or property of the Navy (affirmative claims). The Admiralty Division also handles claims for towage and salvage services rendered to a vessel in the naval service.

(e) Admiralty-contract claims. Admiralty-contract claims arising out of the operations of the Military Sealift Command (MSC) are handled by its Office of Counsel. MSC is responsible for the procurement of vessels and space for the commercial ocean transportation of Department of Defense cargo, mail, and personnel. It is also responsible for the maintenance, repair, and alteration of Government-owned vessels assigned to it. The Office of Counsel, MSC, deals with the various claims of a contract nature which arise out of these operations. These include claims for cargo damage, charter hire, redelivery, general average, and claims arising under MSC ship-repair contracts.

(f) Damage caused by Navy contract stevedores. Office of Counsel, Naval Supply Systems Command, has cognizance of admiralty claims for damage caused by Navy contract stevedores. Under these stevedore contracts, the stevedoring companies are responsible for negligent acts of their employees which result in vessel damage. It is important that the extent of any such damage be accurately determined and promptly reported to the contracting officer having cognizance of the particular stevedore contract involved.

(g) Resolving conflicts. Admiralty-tort claims, such as collision, personal-injury, and death claims, are dealt with by the Admiralty Division, irrespective of whether an MSC vessel or other naval vessel is involved. Whether any particular claim is to be handled by JAG or by MSC, therefore, is determined by the nature of the claim. Cases may arise which could be handled by either office. If doubt exists, such matters should be reported both to JAG and to MSC. An agreement will then be reached between the Admiralty Division and the Office of Counsel, MSC, as to how the incident should be handled.

[39 FR 9962, Mar. 15, 1974, as amended at 55 FR 12173, Apr. 2, 1990]

§ 752.3 Claims against the Navy.

(a) Settlement authority. 10 U.S.C. 7622 (1982) provides settlement authority for "(1) Damage caused by a vessel in the naval service or by other property under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Navy; (2) compensation for towage or salvage service, including contract salvage, rendered to a vessel in the naval service or to other property of the Navy; or (3) damage caused by a maritime tort committed by any agent or employee of the Department of the Navy or by property under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Navy." The limit on the Secretary's settlement authority is payment of $1,000,000. A claim which is settled for an amount over $1,000,000 is certified to
